ACVIM TO HOST FIRST ANNUAL CAREER EXPO

The 2009 ACVIM Forum & Canadian VMA Convention offers job seekers a one-stop shop for employment opportunities

LAKEWOOD, Colo. – The American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine (ACVIM) will be hosting the first annual ACVIM Career Expo at the 2009 ACVIM Forum & Canadian Veterinary Medical Association Convention in Montréal, Canada, June 3-6, 2009.

"These are tough times for job hunters in the veterinary community and the ACVIM wants to help," said Marcie Rhysling, MA, ACVIM's Director of Operations, Marketing & Strategic Management. "The ACVIM Career Expo offers special features - to those looking for employment and to companies looking to hire - all in one place."

Some of those features include free job ads and a networking experience. The ACVIM Career Expo will be strategically located in the 2009 ACVIM Forum & Canadian VMA Convention Exhibit Hall for maximum exposure.

There will be plenty of opportunities for all attendees, including Veterinary Specialists, Generalists, and Technicians, as well as hospital managers and new veterinary school graduates, to find a job that offers personal and professional growth.

For more information regarding the ACVIM Career Expo, including information on securing a booth, please contact Kathy Klaus, ACVIM Regional Education & Exhibits Manager, at (800) 245-9081 or Kathy@ACVIM.org.

The ACVIM is the national certifying organization for Veterinary Specialists in large and small animal internal medicine, cardiology, neurology, and oncology. The ACVIM hosts an annual continuing education meeting (ACVIM Forum) each year where cutting-edge information, technology, and research abstracts are showcased for the veterinary community.
